Located at the mouth of the Yangtze River, Shanghai is China’s largest economic center and the most westernized city in the country after Hong Kong. In this dynamic city, East and West don’t just meet – they collide. A booming metropolis at the forefront of China's race for modernization, this port city is filled with stunning contrasts. The city is home to many of the country's most popular tourist attractions including Yu Garden, The Bund, the Shanghai Museum, and the famed Shanghai Acrobatic Show.

This vibrant city of 16 million has a history of more than 700 years. Old buildings that line the city's charming, bustling streets contain architectural remnants of a strong colonial past. And for those who love fashion, Shanghai is also considered a "shopper's paradise," with Nanjing and Huaihai Roads showcasing the latest in designer trends.
